that he will prize the sticks as a very interesting souvenir.

Saw an old-fashioned man the other day wearing an old-fashioned black alpaca coat, the coat the old-fashioned country justices of the peace used to affect. And it did look comfortable.

What has become of the boy who used to call at the back door for the empty bottles?

LIVES SAVED BY SUDDEN ACTION

(Correspondence Associated Press)

STOCKHOLM, June 17.—The lives of several thousand persons of the middle classes at Riga were saved by the Letts when they surprised the Bolsheviks and captured that city on May 19. These people had been held as hostages by the Bolsheviks. The suddenness with which the Lettish yeomanry captured the city in a half hour rush prevented the Bolsheviks from murdering them. Only in one large central prison outside the city where the Letts were ten minutes late did the Bolsheviks have time to kill more than 100 educated persons.

This information has been brought here by Hans Fraenckle, who has returned to Stockholm from an adventurous trip to Riga in a motor boat to rescue some of his friends. Fraenckle saved thirteen persons and brought them with him to Stockholm.

He said the situation at Riga was worse than any description could picture. Famine had paralyzed everything and the inhabitants looked like shadows. Traces of the terror that had converted Riga into a real inferno were to be seen everywhere. Corpses were lying in the streets.

The people were most pessimistic and the future looked hopeless for their pillaged city. They doubted if it could be held against the Bolsheviks, unless the Allied powers gave military support.

BUY A BREWERY TO GET SUPPLY OF BEER

(Correspondence Associated Press)

LONDON, June 29.—Because the coal miners of Wales cannot buy enough beer, owing to the shortage, they are buying a brewery. A company has been formed to purchase and operate it and the capital of $100,000 is being subscribed by various miners' clubs, which are taking out shares in the concern in proportion to membership.

MID-SEASON IN THE PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

(By Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Mid-season in the Pacific coast baseball league finds the Los Angeles and Vernon clubs playing in the standing expected of them. Sacramento and Oakland are the most disappointing of the eight teams in the league, it having been reckoned that they were capable of better standings in the percentages. Less disappointing is the standing of the San Francisco club. Salt Lake is about holding its own in the percentage column while Portland and Seattle are where they have been practically the entire season, down near the end.

The showing of the San Francisco team has been more encouraging of late and they have done much better than was expected of them during their recent weeks on the road. If they can maintain something of the showing they have been making of late, they stand a good chance to better their average considerably.

Los Angeles maintains a lead which assures them first position in the league for some time to come and they will have to fall off a lot if the other teams expect to draw within shooting distance of the Angels who have been off at the front ever since the opening week. With the season half over the Los Angeles team has excellent prospect of being returned the Pacific Coast champion unless it meets with some unusual reverses.

Interest at the time Vinters principally on the fight for second place which has been sharp throughout the season. San Francisco and Vernon being the two contestants for the position. With the exception of one week when Salt Lake held the place and two weeks when Oakland was here, earlier in the season, the fight has been between the seals and the Tigers.

The rise of Vernon from the lower division has been the feature of the day in the last two months, having won eight consecutive series in accomplishing this feat, beginning with the third week in May, when they were in seventh place with a percentage of 417.

How would it do for the United States to become mandatory of the land?
